Polar Exploration Books

Catalogue: YOUNG

Welcome to our latest polar catalogue. We are now up to the letter Y in the alphabet for our catalogues, and this one is named after Allen Young, who was sailing master of Fox under McClintock (1857-59) and commanded the steam ship Pandora searching for NW Passage in the 1870s.

There are separate Arctic and Antarctic sections in this catalogue; and sections on polar ephemera and polar postcards as follows:

- Pages 4 to 27    Antarctic Books
- Pages 28 to 41    Arctic Books
- Pages 42 to 46    Polar Ephemera
- Pages 47 to 49    Polar Postcards ( I have recently bought a large collection )

Also, I have grouped the listing of some books relating to Sir Douglas Mawson ( page 13) Captain Scott (pages 17 to 19), Ernest Shackleton (pages 20 to 24), and Sir John Franklin (pages 31 and 32). At the start of the catalogue you will also see listed some recently published polar books. This catalogue can also be viewed on our website www.kingsbridgebooks.co.uk

If the book you are looking for is not in this catalogue, then please get in touch as we do have many other books (and items of ephemera) not listed here. Please let us know if you would like more details about the content or condition of any of the books. Images can be emailed if required.

Happy hunting, and all the best for a happy and healthy 2023.

Paul Davies

* Many books sell very quickly therefore so it is best to ring or email straight away, then Andrea or I can reserve them for you.

* Because of the costs involved, we regret that if you do not place an order after receiving three issues of our catalogue we will no longer be able to send it to you, unless you specifically ask for it.

Vol III is the book of the original single issues of the broadsheets produced at Cape Evans to amuse the men on the Terra Nova Expedition. Cherry Garrard was the editor and typist and Wilson the main illustrator. The first issue was presented on Midwinter's Day 1911, the second on 8 September and the third on 15 October. The content included poetry, humorous articles illustrations of sledging flags and caricatures. Includes Wilson's moving poem 'The Barrier Silence' and Ponting's hilarious tongue twister 'The Sleeping Bag'.

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON

Number 34 of only 40 copies !

111 St James Park Press    An Albion in the Antarctic 2019    First edition

This 58pp book is the definitive account of the production of 'Aurora Australis'; the first letterpress printed book in Antarctica.

Printed in 2019 on an Albion Press, akin to that used during Shackleton's expedition. Handset in justified setting and in founders 14pt Caslon Old Face, printed on smooth white Zerkall watermarked paper 145gsm, and bound into the book is an original Abbey Mills Greenfield specimen paper, showing the same watermark on which 'Aurora Australis' was printed.

Bound by Roger Grech, with a repeat pattern cover also printed from an original block on Abbey Mills Greenfield watermarked paper using the illustration taken from the original penguin press-mark used by the printers in their Antarctic edition. The book is housed in a two-tone blue cloth covered solander box.

Each copy is individually numbered with a separately printed endpaper on which the number is printed in a face called Tea-Chest. The endpapers are a blue Fabriano paper.

Much sought after book by both Polar and Fine Press book collectors
